

The Board Risk & Compliance Committee (the "Committee") has been established by the board of directors (the "Board") of Mattioli Woods plc (the "Company" or the "Group") as a committee of the Board.

1 PURPOSE

- 1.1 The purpose of the Committee is to provide oversight and advice to the Board in relation to current and future risk exposure of the Company and its subsidiaries and the future risk strategy, including the determination of risk appetite and tolerance and the effectiveness of the risk management framework and (in conjunction with the Audit Committee) internal controls required to manage risk. The Committee shall also promote a risk awareness culture within the Company.
- 1.2 The Committee may sub-delegate any of its powers and authority as it sees fit, including, without limitation, through the establishment of sub-committees to consider particular issues and report back to the Committee.
- 1.3 The Committee has delegated day-to-day operational management of the Group to the Operational Risk and Compliance Committee ("ORCC") and authorises the ORCC to seek any information it requires from any employee or director of the Group and all Group companies, and all employees or directors shall co-operate with any request made by the Committee.

2 COMMITTEE COMPOSITION

- 2.1 Membership will be made on the recommendation of the Nomination Committee and in consultation with the Chair of the Committee.
- 2.2 The Committee shall have at least three members and the majority of members shall be independent non-executive directors. The Committee shall include at least one member of the Audit Committee.
- 2.3 The current membership of the Committee is found at appendix 1.
- 2.4 Only members of the Committee, and, at the invitation of the Chair, other members of The Board, shall have the right to attend meetings. Membership is personal to the position holder and cannot be delegated.
- 2.5 Membership shall be for a period of three years, which may be extended for up to two additional three-year periods, provided the member still meets the criteria for both independence and membership of the Committee.
- 2.6 The Committee's Chair shall be appointed by the Board and shall be accountable for the effective operation of the Committee. In the absence of the Committee Chair, their deputy, or in their absence the remaining members shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting.
- 2.7 All members shall have appropriate knowledge, skills and expertise to fully understand and monitor the risk strategy and appetite of the Company.

- 2.8 Other individuals may also be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when the Chair deems appropriate and necessary.
- 2.9 Regular invited attendees are likely to be, but are not limited to, Chief Executive Officer, Group Compliance Officer, Group Operating Officer, Corporate Reporting Officer, Head of Technical, Risk and Compliance, Compliance Manager and internal auditors.

3 MEETINGS

- 3.1 The secretary of the Committee shall be the Company Secretary or such other person as the Committee may appoint.
- 3.2 The Committee shall meet at least four times per annum. The Chair has the discretion to cancel, reschedule or call additional meetings as required. Meetings shall be called by the Secretary at the request of its Chair or any of its members or at the request of the Group Compliance Officer, if they consider it necessary or appropriate.
- 3.3 Meetings may be conducted by telephone or video conference and decisions made by such means shall be appropriately recorded and shall have the same effect as those conducted in person.
- 3.4 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two members, both of whom shall be independent non-executive directors.
- 3.5 At least once per year the Committee shall meet with the Group Compliance Officer without any executive director present.
- 3.6 In addition, the Committee Chair shall maintain a dialogue with key individuals involved in the Company's risk management and compliance including, the Chair of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, the external lead audit partner and the Group Compliance Officer.
- 3.7 The agenda for each meeting shall be approved by the Chair. Notice of each meeting, together with an agenda of items to be discussed shall be forwarded to each Committee member, and any attendees, no later than 5 working days before the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members, and other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.
- 3.8 The Secretary shall prepare formal minutes for every meeting capturing key issues raised and any decisions/approvals made/granted by the Committee.

4 RESPONSIBILITIES

The duties of the Committee shall be to:

Risk Appetite Framework

- 4.1 Advise the Board on the Company's overall risk appetite tolerance and strategy, which shall also take into consideration environmental and economic factors.

- 4.2 If requested by the Board, to review proposed strategic actions impacting the Company including strategic acquisitions or disposals, ensuring that due diligence of the proposition has been carried out, in particular focusing on the implications for the risk appetite and tolerance of the Company.
- 4.3 Oversee management implementation of the risk appetite framework, including management's response to breaches of risk appetite.

Risk Management

- 4.4 Review the design and implementation of the risk management framework at least annually.
- 4.5 Review the effectiveness of the risk management framework and, in conjunction with the Audit Committee, the internal controls required to manage risks. In undertaking these responsibilities, the Committee will:
 - 4.5.1 Review the performance of the Company relative to risk appetite and monitor any risk trends and concentrations. Review all material risk exposures and management's recommendations to monitor and control such exposures.
 - 4.5.2 Ensure that an annual robust assessment of the emerging and principal risks facing the Company is undertaken, including those risks that would threaten its business model, future performance, solvency and liquidity, and provide advice on the management and mitigation of those risks.
 - 4.5.3 Review the methodology for reporting risk to the Board, including both quantitative and qualitative measures. Consider the Company's risk profile relative to current and future strategy and confirm that the Company is operating within the Board approved risk appetite framework.
 - 4.5.4 Keep under review the risk assessment processes that inform the Board's decision making.
 - 4.5.5 Consider material findings from regulatory reviews and interaction with regulators which impact risk governance or risk management processes.
 - 4.5.6 Report to the Board on its consideration of the above, identifying areas where improvement is needed and make recommendations as appropriate.
- 4.6 Receive regular reports from the Group Compliance Officer, including reports of any material breaches of risk limits and the adequacy of proposed action, and review and challenge the risk register.
- 4.7 Oversee the stress testing framework and challenge the design and execution of stress and scenario testing.
- 4.8 Recommend the appointment or removal of the Group Compliance Officer for approval by the Board.

- 4.9 Approve the remit and oversee the performance of the Risk and Compliance Function (including performance of the Group Compliance Officer) as well as ensuring it has adequate resources and appropriate access to information to enable it to perform its function effectively with sufficient independence such as it is free from management interference.
- 4.10 The Group Compliance Officer will report directly to the Chief Executive, with a secondary reporting line to the Chair of the Committee and a right of access to the Chair of the Board.
- 4.11 The Committee Chair will discuss the remuneration of the Group Compliance Officer with the Chair of the Remuneration Committee.

Conduct Risk

- 4.12 Ensure that conduct risks inherent in the Company's business model and/or strategy are identified, mitigated and monitored.
